TOKYO GINZA NOH WEEK

2024年8月19日 [月] — 25日 [日]

Noh (能), which is popularized and formalized during the Muromachi period(1336-1568), is a form of theater involving music, dance and drama. Today, it is recognized internationally as one of great Japanese classical performing arts. Throughout the event, the performers of Kanze school Noh invite you to explore the history and tradition of Noh at the Kanze Noh theater, which is located in the center of Ginza, Tokyo. Check out our full lineup of the event, including workshops held at the front of historical Noh stage, and experience to wear Noh masks at the lobby.

THIS SUMMER KANZE NOH THEATER WILL BE A MUSEUM.

We offer lots of fun and interactive programs that invite you to the world of Noh.

There is a diorama of the Noh stage and a special photo booth featuring Noh programs. You can also take photos with Noh performers. Please feel free to take photos at the lobby.

*You may have to wait to enter when the theater is crowded.

Exhibition of Noh Masks and Costumes

You can see close to Noh masks and costumes which are actually used at performance. You will discover beauty of the traditional embroidery and patterns that have been a real treat for the eyes of audience for over 700 years.

Noh Masks Experience

You can try on about 30 types of Noh masks.

Main characters of Noh wear masks that represent women, old men, demons and spirits. These masks tell the audience what kinds of characters are being portrayed. In this booth, find your favorite mask and try it on.

Special Movie “Kanze Noh Theater Back Stage Tour”

In theatre seating area, you can watch a special movie about the theater's back stage that only performers are allowed to enter. It screens some exciting Noh scenes as well.

Event Shop

We have various gifts that you can find only at Kanze Noh theater including collaboration products with the popular character Snoopy.

Noh Costume Demonstration

It is a rare opportunity to see how Noh performers are dressed into their stage costumes for a famous Noh program called Hagaromo with explanation.

*Please note that this is not a Noh performance.

Interactive Workshop Featuring with Kanze Noh Performers

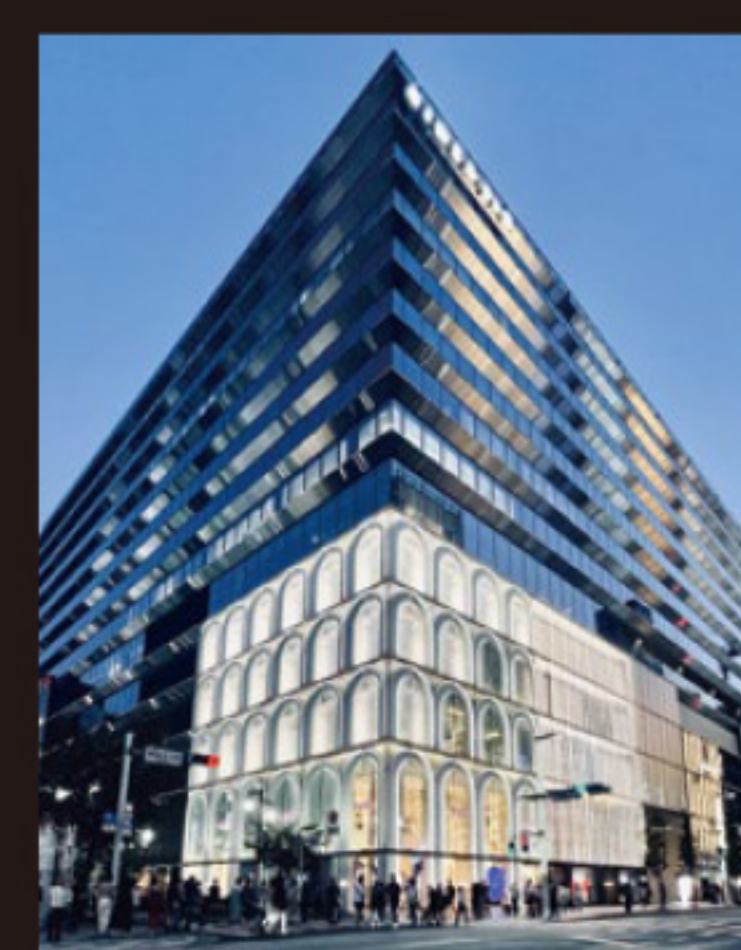

- 3pm and 6pm each day of the event
- The workshop will be about for 45min.
- Simultaneous interpretation is available in English.
- Each workshop is available up to 400 participants on a first-come first-served basis.

Kanze Noh performers will explain about the history, Noh masks and costumes using across the spaces of the stage and audience seats at Kanze Noh theater. They also invite you their Noh exercise such as a theater vocal training and acting practices that all participants move their body together. This workshop is our highlight of the event that you can enjoy learning about unique expressions of Noh.
